

CARNIVORES

These are animals that eat mainly meat.
This includes insects and all animals.

Some carnivores are:

- felines (lions, tigers & all cats)
- birds of prey (eagles, hawks, owl etc.)
- sharks • frogs • spiders

OMNIVORES

These are animals able to eat plants AND animals.

Some omnivores are:

- humans
- most bears
- raccoons
- most primates (apes & monkeys)
- seagulls & other birds

Animals can be grouped according to what they eat.

CARNIVORES

Carne *means flesh

HERBIVORES

Herba *means grass

OMNIVORES

Omni *means all

*These words are from Latin, which is an ancient language.

HERBIVORES

These are animals that eat mainly plants.

This includes leaves, grass, flowers, seeds, roots, fruits, bark, pollen and much more.

Some herbivores are:

- deer
- horses
- rabbits
- cows
- bees
- sheep
- grasshoppers

