

Cookery at Poets Corner

Otter class have been fortunate enough to go to Poets Corner for cooking sessions. The children were able to make Mushroom Croustades. They followed a recipe with the help of the Poets Corner staff and bought the delicious goods back to school. The children were able to take them home along with a recipe card to make them again with their family. The children enjoyed this opportunity and sharing their experiences on their return to school.

