

Letting in the Light

Elizabeth Lindsay

- 1 I am warm wrapped in my fur
My wobbly legs resting as I lie here,
My eyes still closed.
Soon they will open
- 5 Letting in the light,
And when I see
I'll spin the world round in tumbles
As I play chasing my tail,
Or hunt specks of dust in the sunlight
- 10 And wash the paws I have never seen.
My mother washes my face
Her tongue smoothing my fur,
I hear her purr,
And see, yes, see some pink.
- 15 Her busy tongue, her whiskers,
Fur and eyes so orange bright,
She bends towards me,
Licking and licking,
And over I go.
- 20 I see light everywhere
And begin to know
I have opened my eyes.

9 Why is the poem called Letting in the Light?

Tick one.

It is about:

what the kitten will do when her eyes are open.

what the kitten will do in the morning, when it is light.

the kitten’s first experiences of being licked by her mother.

the first time the kitten opened her eyes.
